Groupe de travail Machine Learning and Massive Data Analysis

The MLMDA seminar is the regular gathering event of the MLMDA research group with a two-fold aim: to follow the theoretical and applied advancements of the Machine Learning community with internal and invited speakers, as well as to exchange over the results of the research conducted by the members of the group, and hence encourage collaboration.

Organisation et contacts

Sylvain Combettes

Alejandro de la Concha

Argyris Kalogeratos

Anthea Mérida.